MEMORANDUM OF POINTS & AUTHORITIES*INTRODUCTION

This Motion to Dismiss should be granted as Plaintiff Benjamin Sparks ("Plaintiff") has failed to timely service Christina with process. Plaintiff filed his Complaint in the Eighth Judicial District Court on March 27, 2020. Christina removed this matter to federal district court on April 9, 2020. As such, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), Plaintiff had until July 8, 2020 to serve Christina and Defendant Giwargis. Christina was not served by the deadline. In fact, Plaintiff did not even have a summons issued for Christina until July 21, 2020 (ECF No. 20), which was after the deadline to effectuate service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, the Motion should be granted.<sup>2</sup>

As outlined in various pleadings before this Court, Plaintiff's filing of the Complaint in this matter was never about Plaintiff actually adjudicating this matter on the merits. Instead, Plaintiff's intention from day 1 was to file a blockbuster Complaint and then disseminate it throughout the legal community, under the mistaken belief that the litigation privilege attached, as a way to punish Christina for escaping an abusive relationship. This is most evident by the fact that Plaintiff touted that he had never even tried to serve Christina as a basis to try to remand this matter to state court.<sup>3</sup> In fact, the docket of this matter clearly demonstrates that not only did Plaintiff never attempt to serve Christina with his Complaint within the permissible service period under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), he did not even have a summons issued until well after the expiration of the permitted service period.

<sup>1</sup> There is no evidence that any summons was ever issued in the Eighth Judicial District Court for either Christina or Defendant Giwargis.

<sup>2</sup> This Motion is independent from the statutory Special Motion to Dismiss that was filed on anti-SLAPP grounds. See, ECF No. 5.

<sup>3</sup> As explained in separate briefing, Christina's removal was appropriate under governing law. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 1 and 9.

1 While Plaintiff will likely try to argue that the COVID-19 pandemic should excuse his failure
2 to timely serve Christina, or alternatively, his failure to timely seek an extension of time to serve her,
3 a cursory review of the docket in this matter will clearly set forth that Plaintiff cannot establish good 4 cause for his failures in this matter. Instead of diligently attempting to serve Christina, the docket of 5 this matter illustrates that Plaintiff made a conscious decision to dedicate his efforts to filing vile and 6 irrelevant pleadings with this Court to try and embarrass Christina, which were twice sealed on an 7 emergency basis.

8 Notably, at no time during the Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) service period did Plaintiff have a 9 summons issued for either Christina or Defendant Giwargis. Issuance of a summons is a prerequisite
10 to having a party served. As such, failing to have a summons issued for 116 days following the filing
11 of Plaintiff's Complaint is undisputable evidence that Plaintiff had no intention of actually serving 12 Christina during the service period.

13 Moreover, at no time during the requisite service period did Plaintiff request that either 14 Christina, or her counsel accept service of Plaintiff's Complaint. Christina is a Las Vegas resident 15 and practicing attorney that has been in plain view since the commencement of this action.
16 Furthermore, despite the fact that Plaintiff filed numerous pleadings with this Court since April 9,
17 2020, at no time during the service period did Plaintiff file a motion with this Court seeking to extend 18 the time to serve Christina or Defendant Giwargis because of any alleged service issues.

19 The only logical explanation for Plaintiff's repeated and multiple failures relating to service
20 of process is that Plaintiff's real motivation in filing his Complaint was to lash out at Christina and 21 embarrass her in the legal community, attempt to interfere with her employment, and to file/distribute 22 salacious pleadings and allegations that were ultimately sealed. Using this Court to try to achieve 23 such an objective should not be condoned, let alone rewarded. For the reasons outlined above and 24

1 below, Christina requests that this Court dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint for failing to effect service of 2 process upon Christina within the time allowed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

3 I.

4 RELEVANT FACTUAL/PROCEDURAL HISTORY

5 On March 27, 2020, Plaintiff filed his Complaint in this matter in the Eighth Judicial 6 District Court of Nevada against Christina, his former fiancée, and Defendant Ramona Giwargis, 7 a former reporter for the Las Review Journal. The essence of Plaintiff's Complaint is that 8 Defendants' alleged dissemination of certain written provisions of a "sex contract" that Plaintiff
9 drafted and freely distributed to Christina defamed and portrayed him in a false light.

10 On the same day that Plaintiff filed his Complaint, he also filed his Initial Appearance Fee
11 Disclosure and Demand for Jury Trial. The Eighth Judicial District Court Docket reflects that 12 Plaintiff did not request that the Clerk of the Eighth Judicial District Court issue Summons to 13 Defendants on March 27, 2020, or at any time prior to Christina's removal of this matter to Federal 14 Court on April 9, 2020. See, Ex. A attached hereto (state court docket sheet for which judicial 15 notice is sought).

16 Removal occurred shortly after Christina learned that open discussions in the community 17 were occurring regarding the instant matter (Plaintiff's Complaint) during proceedings involving 18 a completely unrelated matter and immediately after Christina learned that Plaintiff's Complaint 19 was reportedly circulating on a legal organization's list-serve.<sup>4</sup>

20 On April 9, 2020, Christina filed her Notice of Removal from the Eighth Judicial District 21 Court of Nevada to the United States District Court of Nevada. ECF No. 1. At the time of 22

23 <sup>4</sup> Defendant Mamer's counsel served document preservation correspondence upon the 24 organization to ensure the names of the participants and their corresponding I.P. addresses were preserved.

1 Christina's Notice of Removal, neither she nor Defendant Giwargis had been served with 2 Plaintiff's Complaint or the Summons and Complaint. Plaintiff confirms this fact in his Objection
3 to Notice of Removal and Motion for Remand ("Objection). See ECF No. 7 at 2:1-3 ("...Plaintiff
4 has not yet made attempts to effectuate service against either named Defendant[sic.]")

5 After removal and on or about April 30, 2020, Christina (through her attorneys) filed a 6 special Motion to Dismiss pursuant to NRS 41.660, otherwise known as Nevada's "anti-SLAPP"
7 statute, and applicable case law. ECF No. 5.

8 On May 14, 2020, Plaintiff filed his Opposition to Christina's special Motion to Dismiss
9 [ECF No. 10], which this Court immediately sealed on an emergency basis due to the fact that it 10 was riddled with immaterial, irrelevant, and improper statements discussing Christina's alleged 11 sexual history and propensities.

12 II.

13 PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT SHOULD BE DISMISSED 14 FOR FAILING TO COMPLY WITH FED. R. CIV. P. 4(m)

15 After removal of a case from state court to federal district court, a plaintiff must comply 16 with the federal procedural rule dealing with service of process as to any defendant not served 17 before removal. Bruley v. Lincoln Property Co., N.C., Inc., 140 F.R.D. 452 (D. Colo. 1991).
18 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), a defendant must be served within 90 days after the complaint is 19 filed. In cases such as the instant matter, the 90-day period starts to run on the day the case is 20 removed to federal court. Id. Christina removed this action to federal court on April 9, 2020. At 21 the time Christina removed this action, neither she nor Defendant Giwargis had been served.
22 Based upon the date of removal, Plaintiff had until July 8, 2020 to serve Christina or Defendant
23 Giwargis, or seek an extension of time to effectuate service.
24

1 At no time during the Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) service period did Plaintiff have a summons issued
2 for either Christina or Defendant Giwargis.<sup>5</sup> Issuance of a summons is a prerequisite to having a 3 party served. As such, failing to have a summons issued for 116 days following the filing of 4 Plaintiff's Complaint is undisputable evidence that Plaintiff had no intention of actually serving
5 Christina during the service period. Instead, the objective conclusion to be reached is that Plaintiff
6 waited to file a scandalous pleading with the state court on the eve of a statute of limitation deadline
7 to try to punish and embarrass Christina. Plaintiff's actions related to service of process, or lack 8 thereof, demonstrate Plaintiff's conscious decision to never attempt service of process upon Christina 9 or Defendant Giwargis within the service period provided under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), despite the 10 fact that Plaintiff was actively litigating this matter during the COVID-19 pandemic. Plaintiff should 11 not be rewarded for his misguided and willful decision to not serve Christina, or timely seek an 12 extension of the service period.

13 CONCLUSION

14 For the reasons stated herein, aside from ordering dismissal pursuant to Christina's Special 15 anti-SLAPP Motion to Dismiss, Defendant respectfully requests this Court enter an dismissing

21 <sup>5</sup> Plaintiff filed his Complaint in the Eighth Judicial District Court on March 27, 2020. Christina 22 removed this matter to federal district court on April 9, 2020. As such, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.
23 4(m), Plaintiff had until July 8, 2020 to serve Christina and Defendant Giwargis. As discussed 24 herein, no summons were ever issued in the Eighth Judicial District Court for either Christina or Defendant Giwargis. Plaintiff did not have a summons issued for Christina until July 21, 2020, which was after the deadline to effectuate service.

1 Plaintiff's Complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) as Plaintiff failed to serve Christina in the 2 period prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), nor can he establish good cause for his failure to do so.
